

Call for 2nd International conference on

“Media & information Literacy”

With special reference to “Family”

as a basic social institution

Along with Academic & Educational approach having 2 main themes of Research & Practice

Going to be held in Tehran, I. R. Iran, from

3rd - 5th of November, 2018

Guidelines for articles, Ideas & reports:

A: Research & Academic Part: Abstracts of articles sent to the secretariat of this conference must not increase more than 250- 230 words and once it was approved, the main article could be sent having 600 – 800 words.

B: Practical: abstracts of reports must not be exceeded by 150-250 words while detailed reports should have 300 – 600 words

Entire proceedings of conference would publish afterward.

The authors / participants would be awarded by different prizes according to prescribed criteria.

Last date for sending abstract:

22nd August, 2018

Last date for submission of full article:

22nd September, 2018

Sub-themes:

(Academic & research oriented)

- The role of family in betterment of the use of social media
- The role of Family in prescribed utility of Media & Information Technology

- The role of family in edutainment & computer games
- The need of parental attention to ensure the safe use of social media
- Media literacy & critic perception
- The evaluation of the way of training for barricading of production digital content in social media
- The evaluation of international documents in the literacy of media
- Religious doctrine for the betterment of Media & Information literacy
- The need of attention towards morality in Media & Information literacy

(Experimental & practical):

- The experiments in media literacy
- Media production such documentary, short movies, intimations, computer games etc.
- Artistic production in media literacy

Scholars/ authors / participants can send their articles on this Email: MLiteracy.saramad.ir